Bourns® Trimpot® Division Announces 7914 Product Update

Bourns is pleased to announce a product update to Model 7914. Effective January 1, 2007 with date code 7A, we will begin phasing in a new housing material. The new housing material is natural in color and meets current Bourns recommended processing guidelines.

There is no change in form, fit or function of the product.

New samples and test data are available upon request. There will be a transition period where both types of housing materials may be shipped.
